Are you being called to support our community and the work of the Cathedral in prayer?

The prayer chain has been in existence for about 10 years. During that time many people have been supported through difficult times by your prayers. The group of people who do the praying has also changed over the years.

The time has come I feel, for a variety of reasons to wind up the present prayer cell and re-launch this vital ministry. Its boundaries will be re-established and its aims broadened. I hope this will give it new life and much more scope to serve our community and visitors. If you are already part of the prayer cell please get in touch with me to confirm you want to continue. This will not be assumed. If you would like to join the group of prayers or would like a conversation please either speak with me or send me an email on the above address.

Cathedral Pastoral Team

Please contact Diana Belton on Diana.belton@leccofe.org ☎ 07975 833209 if you have any pastoral concerns. Pastoral visits to hospital, nursing and residential homes, and to people at home can be arranged for our congregation. A group of commissioned lay people, working with the clergy, take Holy Communion out to those who are unwell or who are now unable to attend worship at the Cathedral. Please contact Celia Russell-Thorpe and Diana Belton to arrange this.

Cancer Care Prayer Group

The Cancer Care prayer group meets every Tuesday at 3pm to light candles and name people with or who have had cancer and have asked for our prayers. Everyone is welcome to attend. To add a relative or friend to the list, contact Sue Mason sue.mason4@btopenworld.com

Leicester Cathedral Old Choristers' Association

The voluntary position of Secretary of the Association has become vacant and we are looking for someone to join the committee to take on this interesting role as from 1 September. If anyone would like details of what the position entails, please do not hesitate to have a word with me, email me at lcoca.secretary@gmail.com or ☎ 01509 880557.

The duties do not include taking the minutes of the three meetings per year as there is a separate Minutes Secretary. The Association maintains links between ex-choristers and the Cathedral. It also strives "to advance the education of the public in the art and science of English cathedral music by supporting and furthering the provision of this music by organists, songmen and the boys and girls of the Cathedral Choir, thus helping to ensure that its tradition is maintained and developed as part of the Cathedral's worship and heritage". It is recognised by HMRC as a charity for tax purposes. Thank you.

Richard Belton, Treasurer and Acting Secretary

Choir Farewells

This morning's service is the Cathedral Choir's last before the summer break and, as always at this time of year, we say an official goodbye and thank-you to those who will be leaving the choir sometime between now and the start of university term in the autumn. Michael Clarke joined the Cathedral Choir as a Young Songman in February 2017, having previously sung with the choir of St Andrew's, Aylestone, both as a treble and on the back row. He very quickly settled into the Cantoris basses, where his warmth of tone in the lower registers has been a real bedrock for the sound of the choir as a whole. Michael is not only a gifted singer, but also an accomplished clarinettist, who recently got a distinction for his Grade Eight, the cost of his lessons having been supported in part by one of the scholarship that the Cathedral makes available to Young Songmen. He has a place at Nottingham University to study Electrical and Electronic Engineering and will sing as a Choral Scholar at St Mary's Church in the city.

Clarissa Wells first came to my attention when I accompanied her Grade Five singing exam just before Christmas 2013: I liked what I heard and, since there was space in the Senior Girls' Choir at that time, invited her to join.

We were fortunate that she decided to stay in Leicester for her degree and extend our warmest congratulations to her on having recently been awarded a B.A. in Education Studies with Upper Second Class honours from De Montfort University, her dissertation for which was supervised by our very own Motje Wolf. As well as having become a real leader among the Cantoris sopranos, Clarissa has been an important part of the social side of choir life and is referred to affectionately by some of the others as 'Granny', purely on account of her being a year or two their senior and therefore the other side of twenty. Also leaving this term is Elizabeth Natrass, to whom we made a presentation a couple of Sundays ago, as she moved down to Devon as soon as she finished her A-levels, as her parents have recently left the teaching profession to open a hotel there (I'm still waiting for the address, as we've yet to book our summer holiday). Then aged 12, Elizabeth was one of the oldest singers to join the choir through our 'Sing for the King!' campaign held in the spring of 2013 and, after just a term in the Junior Girls' Choir, moved up to the Senior Girls' Choir the following summer, where she's been a mainstay of the first soprano line ever since, particularly over the past year. Like Clarissa, she's sung some memorable solos, including the Pie Jesu from the Fauré Requiem in 2016. Elizabeth is taking a gap-year, during which she'll be working at a Catholic Youth Retreat Centre in Derbyshire, and hopes thereafter to study Architecture in Lincoln. Clarissa, Michael, Elizabeth, thank you for all that you have given to the musical life of Leicester Cathedral during your time in the choir.

We wish you all the very best for the exciting future that lies ahead and you go with our love and prayers. It is also appropriate at this point to express, on behalf of the Cathedral community, our heartfelt thanks to the families of these and indeed all our singers for the support they have given, and continue to give, to the choir. Without the (grand-)parental taxi service, there would be no singers and without singers, there would be no choir. Thank you for all that you do; it really isn't taken for granted.

Farewell Julie Tyler

Our final goodbye is somewhat overdue, since Julie Tyler actually left us in the spring as part of the restructuring of the Cathedral admin team. Julie first joined us as the Administrator for the Chorister Outreach Programme, which started under my predecessor Jonathan Gregory, and became Music Department Administrator when the successor to that programme, DioSing!, was set up in 2012. There's so much that she's been involved with since then that it's difficult to know where to start, but perhaps exemplary for diligence with which she fulfilled all the different tasks I threw her way is the painstaking annual round of phone calls to local primary schools each spring to arrange my recruitment visits, without which the Cathedral Choirs would not have half as many members as they do today.

This is the first occasion since Julie left when all the different groups of the Cathedral Choirs have been in attendance and we didn't want anyone to miss out on extending our thanks to her for all that she's done.

Cathedral Community

Journey in Faith

From the recent Bishop's Conversations, the ordinations season, Partnership for Missional Church, our strategic planning and most importantly through conversations, the question of how is God calling us, collectively and as individuals is constantly in the air. And so it should be!

At this forthcoming time of year, when many transition in life, from or to school, college or University, new opportunities emerge and lives will settle into routines following the summer holiday, and as many plan their autumn and winter activities, here is a question for you to consider. How is God calling you to explore your faith and deepen your discipleship?

The Journey in Faith course is a year-long evening course. It stands alone, but is also a great entry point into exploring where God may be leading you further, whoever you are and whatever your age and circumstance. Term 1 is about exploring faith, term 2 about God's call and our response and term 3 about the development of Christian doctrine. There is study material with some written assignments if you so wish. Various members of our congregation have done the course – how about giving it a go?

You will find leaflets in the cathedral. Please do talk to Alison Adams if you are interested in this.

Wedding Motje Wolf and Tim Lee

We are getting married on 1 September here at St Martin's. We both have small families far away on the Isle of Wight and in Germany and will never fill this church. The Cathedral congregation has been part of our family here in Leicester for many years and we would be delighted if you celebrated this special day with us. There will be a Service at 11am followed by a reception afterwards to which you all are warmly invited. If you feel like you might want to donate a cake for the occasion (just a normal cake, not a wedding cake!), please contact Esther Arens (esther.arensgmx.de). There is no RSVP, please just come. We are looking forward to seeing you and lots of hats - it's a wedding!

Cathedral Walking Group – 2018 Season of Visits

The next visit and walk of the Cathedral Walking Group will be on Saturday 4 August 2018 when we will be visiting St Michael's church at Eastwell where the Churchwarden has kindly offered to provide lunch. If you would like to join the Cathedral Walking group on this walk and visit please book in with Jim Whait, email: jhwhait@outlook.com or ☎ 0116 235 9332. As usual our day is in three parts, Lunch, Visit and Walk. We will arrive at St Michael's in time for lunch at 12.30pm and after lunch we will look around the church which will be introduced to us by the churchwarden. After our visit we will then enjoy a short walk around local footpaths lasting about 1½ hours

The future programme will include:

- 1 September 2018 - Markfield
- 6 October 2018 - Exton

Further information regarding the Cathedral Walks can be obtained from Mick McQuade, email: mick.mcquade@ntlworld.com , text: 07879675767 or ☎ 0116 231 3298.

Coffee Rota

Tea and Coffee is an important feature to our Sunday worship. Many of us appreciate the time to catch up with one another, to have purposeful conversations and to talk about God. This is a vital ministry to the Church. It is also important to making new people feel welcome and included in our community. Can you help volunteer? Do you think you could help serve refreshments on Sundays after services? You will be supported by a good team and you will be trained responsibly in what you should be doing. Please prayerfully consider if you can help us, see Nathan Morley for more details.

Community Committee future events:

- Community Quiz Night: 31 August 2018, Cathedral
- Community Meal: 26 October 2018, Cathedral
- Day Time Retreat: 24 November 2018, Christ the King, Beaumont Leys, with Rev Clive Watts
- Community Craft Gathering: 1 December 2018. Old Song School

As the chair of the Community Committee, I am proud of the rich programme we have put together for this year's events and activities. We look to build on this achievement in the future. We will continually aspire to organise additional events to enrich our programme.

Cathedral Community Committee

The committee have a number of events happening this year and are starting to plan for 2019. We have space for 2 more people to join our committee for 1 year and you would be most welcome to join us. Please pray about this as God may help you decide to join us. As ever, Community Committee looks to maintain a missional context into our Christian action. We are a group of lay people who are willing to work with the clergy to support this great community.

We would like to help this community to glow and blossom, to stand out from other Cathedrals. If you are considering standing for election in the AGM, you will need to be on the Cathedral Community Roll - joining is simple and you could be elected by the congregation. If you would like to talk about joining, contact me on neill.addison@outlook.com

Cathedral Community Craft Circle

Please join us every Thursday, from 2.00pm – 4.00pm, for Cathedral Community Craft Circle in the White Rose Café, St Martins House. This is a social and informal gathering where you can bring along your knitting, crocheting, or any alternative art materials that you are working on. All welcome!

Leicester Cathedral Revealed

Project Director's update

After the Fox, the Tiger

The Tiger has now joined the Fox in place up at high level on the south-west face of the cathedral, behind the hoardings.

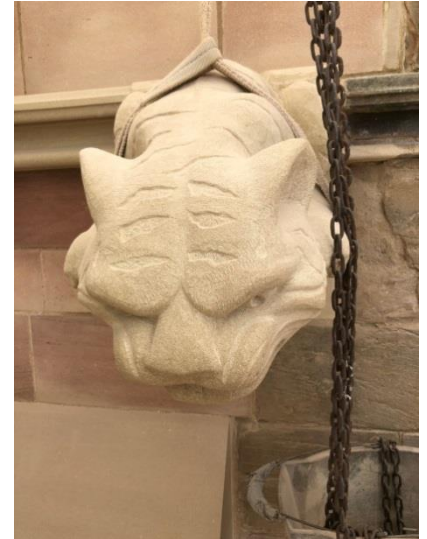

We now expect these to be removed from week beginning 23 July, and we will all be able to see not only those two great new characters, but also the full extent of stonework repairs carried out since we started on site last January.

What about the main Project?

We continue to press on through this crucial Development phase with architects and allied disciplines working on design and our fund-raising team doing what they do. We recently submitted further plans to CFCE for Advice at their forthcoming meeting to be held on 19 July. If all goes well, we then have a deadline of the end of August to finalise plans for both them and the local authority, asking for formal planning consent.

Back at the end of 2016 myself and Lynette Maple, then senior warden, asked you, the congregation for some indication of financial commitment to the project before we first went to the Heritage Lottery Fund to seek their support, and were very grateful for the response at the time, which I know helped impress the HLF Trustees as they set us on our way. As we prepare to go back to HLF for our full round two approval at the end of the year, we'd like to invite you once more to indicate to us whatever financial support is possible for you. More of that on Sunday 15 July.
