Welcome

This autumn we are inviting you to pray with us certainly, and to hold solemn moments of remembrance and thankfulness.

We also wonder if you would like to come and be playful in this marvellous space?

Dance with us at one of our ceilidhs, sit on a giant swing, bring the children for a soft play adventure. Or join us for an adult craft evening or re-live forty years of The Smiths.

From the centring of a Quiet Morning or Sitar concert to an immersive Luxmuralis sound and light creation, you are invited to Leicester Cathedral as the days lengthen and the leaves fall.

We look forward to seeing you.

of Leicester
Cathedral
Girls' Choir

Leicester Cathedral Girls' Choir held its first rehearsal in September 1974 under the direction of the then Assistant Master of the Music, Geoffrey Carter, becoming the first Church of England cathedral to have a female top line independent of the boys. We're fiercely proud of that fact and want to celebrate the Golden Anniversary of this historic event in style!

With our celebrations taking place on 14 and 15 September 2024, if you have been involved with Leicester Cathedral Choir over the past 50 years, whether as a singer, choir parent, member of staff, or just an appreciative member of the congregation, we'd love you to join us.

From a celebratory concert compered by Katie Breathwick, to a special Choral Evensong and exhibition, this is a milestone that we can't wait to celebrate with you!

Saturday 14 September | 7.30pm

O Sons and Daughters, let us sing: A Celebratory Concert

Singers past and present join forces to perform a range of repertoire from the Choir's last 50 years. Compered by Katie Breathwick, Classic FM presenter and former Leicester Cathedral Chorister.

Talks

Thursday 12 September | 6.30pm

Leicester Uncovered: Leicester's lost medieval churches

In the medieval period there were seventeen churches and religious houses in the borough of Leicester. Today, only six survive.

Join archaeologist Mathew Morris from University of Leicester Archaeological Services for a talk about the archaeological excavations over the past 40 years which have rediscovered the buildings and graveyards of seven of these missing sites, providing a unique insight into the lives of the people who used them.

Tickets: £5.50 Full / £3.50 Concession. Available from Eventbrite.

Thursday 26 September | Doors open 6.30pm

Leicester Cathedral: a new phase in its history

Join us for an evening of discussion, building tours and insight into the history of Leicester Cathedral and its current process of upgrade and modernisation.

The Cathedral is undergoing an exciting project to transform the opportunities it can offer, through the reordering of the interior, upgrade of building services and a 3-storey Heritage Learning Centre extension.

This event is hosted by Leicester Cathedral, supported by RIBA East Midlands and Leicestershire & Rutland Society of Architects, and features a talk and building tour by vHH Architects.

An ideal event for anyone interested in history, architecture, the conservation of historic buildings, and how to reduce their energy output through careful, sensitive interventions.

Tickets: £5.50 Full / £3.50 Concession.
Available from Eventbrite.

Plants and Play

ArtReach

by Mandeep
Dhadialla

12 – 31 October

A unique installation by artist Mandeep Dhadialla, this interactive artwork highlights the importance of play for our wellbeing.

Using the fun and familiar element of a garden swing, people of all ages are invited to take a seat and swing while surrounded by a stunning suspended paper garden with large, vibrant flowers, fruits, foliage, and wildlife.

The installation showcases how play can uplift spirits, foster community bonds, and encourage conversations about the environment.

Swing amidst this magical garden and see how play can bring us all closer together, while also reminding us of the beauty of nature and the importance of caring for our environment. Feel the joy of play and let it transform your visit into an extraordinary adventure.

For the first time in Leicester Cathedral
– a new adventure awaits...

18 – 23 November

Visitors will experience Leicester Cathedral like never before as Luxmuralis' light and sound creation illuminates the inside of the building for the first time – telling the story of time and space, projected onto the building's stunning architecture in the heart of the city.

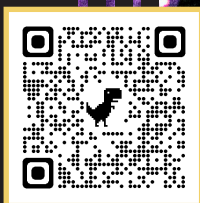

Visitors will wander through projections of galaxies, a rocket launch, and the universe beyond, all with immersive soundscapes.

Entry to the Cathedral is by timed tickets only. The experience will last approximately 40 minutes.

People are recommended to buy their tickets early, with special early bird tickets at a reduced rate launching on 5 August, and general sales available from 2 September. Accessible sessions with reduced sound levels will be on Tuesday and Wednesday from 4.45–5.45pm.

Wednesdays 2, 9, 16 October

In person, St George's Chapel, 11.00am | Online, Zoom, 7.00pm

Bible Together: Luke

In this new short course, we will journey through extracts from the extraordinary stories of the birth, life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ as told from the perspective of Luke. We will read, listen and wonder together, looking at spiritual practices such as Lectio Divina and Dwelling in the Word, in the hope that this will allow us to grow in faith alongside each other, whilst also encouraging us in our own individual discipleship beyond the course.

'Bible Together' draws on our 'Questions Together' model, rooted in our approach to discipleship here at Leicester Cathedral, which is centred around storytelling, conversation and wondering about God together.

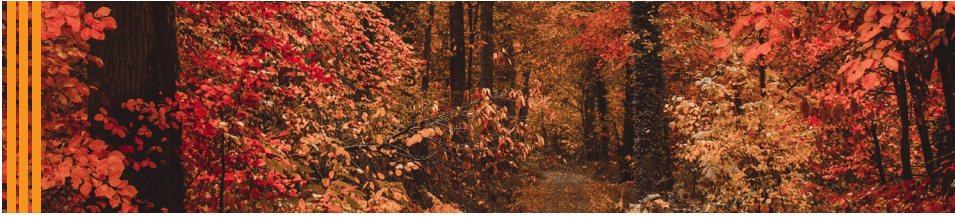

This free short course is offered both in person at the Cathedral in the morning and online in the evening.

Please visit our Eventbrite page to book onto the online course.

'I Will Give You Rest' – a Quiet Morning for Autumn

'Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.'
(Matthew 11.28)

Join us for our next seasonal quiet morning, an opportunity to reflect on the importance of rest in relation to our discipleship, and to practise resting with God and with scripture.

What does Christ's call to come to him in our weariness mean in the context of a society that often prioritises productivity and 'doing' over 'being', and how does this relate to living out our faith?

Through guided reflection, quiet time and permission to simply 'be' in the quiet comfort of the Cathedral, we aim to spend a morning reflecting and resting together.

For ages 11+ (children must be accompanied by an adult).

Register via Eventbrite.

■ Exploring Faith?

Are you interested in journeying with others who would also like to know more about faith, discipleship, and church?

All are very welcome – especially if you are new to church – to contact Jude (Jude.Taylor@LeicesterCofE.org) to register your interest.

Venue Hire

Have you considered hosting your event or exhibition in the Cathedral?

From Roman archaeological discoveries to the reinterment of Richard III, Leicester Cathedral is steeped in history.

Our restoration project has revitalised the building as we approach our centenary year in 2027. Having pushed boundaries over the last century as the first cathedral to have a Girl's Choir, a female Dean, and an all-female clergy team, we are committed to continuing our story of inclusion and accessibility.

The Cathedral is in the heart of the UK's first non-white majority city, and we strive to reflect this in our programme and welcome.

We are a historical attraction, a performance venue, an exhibition space, and a working church. We are a reassuring resource for our local community alongside being a professional venue that delivers a high-quality visitor experience for people from across the world.

Our spaces available for hire are as multi-faceted as the Cathedral itself. Our dedicated team will work with the hirer to utilise the space according to your needs.

If you would like bring the creative vision for your event to life in our historic building then please do get in touch via the booking form on our website.
